Alatis,1990 Classroom Discourse and Teacher Development Steve Walsh,2013-05-20 Highlights the importance of classroom discourse to any second language teacher education programme Reflective practice is central to teacher education and development yet is something that many teachers struggle with Can reflective practice be refocused by asking teachers to place classroom interaction and discourse at the centre of their reflections In this accessible textbook Steve Walsh explains why it is essential to put an understanding of classroom discourse at the centre of any second language teacher education programme whether it is a formal programme under the guidance of a teacher educator or a more informal self directed programme of teacher development He argues that in order to improve their professional practice language teachers need to gain a detailed up close understanding of their local context by focusing on the complex relationship between teacher language classroom interaction and learning In order to do this he revisits and reconceptualises the notion of reflective practice by giving teachers appropriate tools which allow them to reflect on and improve their professional practice This thought provoking book not only stimulates debate on classroom discourse and reflective practice but also contains practical exercises and advice which will be invaluable to both new and experienced language teachers as well as to researchers in applied linguistics Task commentaries a glossary of technical terms and an annotated list of further reading are also included Analecta linguistica ,1992 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2008 Language Policy and Language Education in Emerging Nations Robert de Beaugrande,Meta Grosman,Barbara Seidhofer,1998 It has long been an assumption in the field of English as a foreign language that those who speak the language as natives pronounce the way it should be taught Most influential figures in the field have been outsiders and the subject has accordingly not been really defined as the teaching of English as a foreign language but as the teaching of English to foreigners quite a different thing This book discusses the designing of programs for learning which will take the different kinds of foreign ness into account
