Lithuania Alexandra Ashbourne,1999-01-01 In 1990 the tiny Soviet Republic of Lithuania declared independence and began restoring the mechanisms of independent government and democracy that had been suppressed by its Soviet invaders for half a century Lithuania examines the first years of this rebirth in the face of the legacy of the Soviet occupation In addition to chronicling the lively chain of events leading to and stemming from the declaration of independence Alexandra Ashbourne studies the essential components of rebirth the creation of domestic foreign and security policies and the revitalization of an independent economy Drawing from the personal testimony of Lithuanians closely connected to these events Ashbourne appraises Lithuania s attempts to rejoin the international community and acquire an effective security guarantee She concludes that the damage caused by fifty years of Soviet domination created obstacles to the process of rebirth obstacles that are proving difficult and even impossible to overcome Readers of Lithuania will find its discussions applicable to most former Soviet republics and Eastern Bloc states The book will be invaluable to students and scholars of Lithuania Soviet history and international political policy      International Relations Conway W. Henderson,1998 This text is a distinctly post Cold War learning tool that will help make sense of the rapid changes now taking place in international relations The author s goal is to contribute to an understanding of a world more willing to abide by rules and norms especially as expressed in international law and a world shifting to an emphasis on the soft power of economic influence rather than relying on the hard power of military force While this text is cautiously optimistic about humankind s future as we enter the 21st century it warns about continuing turbulence caused by terrorism rogue states intense trade competition ethnic conflict and the antagonism between rich and poor states The chapters are tied together with an overarching theme that argues the world is moving from an international anarchy based on fear and military power to the early stages of an international society comprised of multiple actors cooperating to solve problems they handle on their own      National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases      Professional Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs Management G.
