the loss which literature science and society had sustained in his premature death Unanimously solicitous to make those sentiments publicly and respectfully known it was at their request that the following Discourse was prepared and delivered It is further due because it is highly honorable to them to state that although the Discourse when delivered was theirs and they had a right to call for the publication of it in pamphlet form they generously waived that right that the work might assume a shape and character more worthy of the memory of the distinguished subject of it and be made if possible to yield a profit for the benefit of his accomplished widow and orphan son To the liberal sentiments and manly conduct of the class on the occasion the following correspondence fully testifies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Biographical Sketches of the Graduates of Yale College with Annals of the College History: June 1792-September 1805 Franklin Bowditch Dexter,1911
