Southeast Asian Ecocriticism John Charles Ryan, 2017-11-08 Southeast Asian Ecocriticism presents a timely exploration of the rapidly expanding field of ecocriticism through its devotion to the writers creators theorists traditions concerns and landscapes of Southeast Asian countries While ecocritics have begun to turn their attention to East and South Asian contexts and particularly to Chinese and Indian cultural productions less emphasis has been placed on the diverse environmental traditions of Southeast Asia Building on recent scholarship in Asian ecocriticism the book gives prominence to the range of theoretical models and practical approaches employed by scholars based within and located outside of the Southeast region Consisting of twelve chapters Southeast Asian Ecocriticism includes contributions on the ecological prose poetry cinema and music of Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam The authors emphasize the transnational exchanges of materials technologies texts motifs and ideas between Southeast Asian countries and Australia England Taiwan Formosa and the United States From environmental hermeneutics postcolonial studies indigenous studies and ecofeminism to critical plant studies ecopoetics and ecopedagogy the edited collection embodies the dynamic breadth of interdisciplinary environmental scholarship today Southeast Asian Ecocriticism foregrounds the theories practices and prospects of ecocriticism in the region The volume opens up new directions and reveals fresh possibilities not only for ecocritical scholarship in Southeast Asia but for a comparative environmental criticism that transcends political boundaries and national canons The volume highlights the important role of literature in heightening awareness of ecological issues at local regional and global scales      Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2019-02-01 Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co existed as parallel disciplines occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities      The Environmental Imaginary in Brazilian Poetry and Art M. McNee, 2014-07-10 This study contributes to ongoing discussions on the connections between the environmental imaginary and issues of identity place and nation Utilizing a delimited ecocritical approach McNee puts Brazilian culture through the work of contemporary poets and visual artists into a broader transnational dialogue      Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature Ming Dong Gu, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature presents a comprehensive overview of Chinese literature from the 1910s to the present day Featuring detailed studies of selected masterpieces it adopts a thematic comparative approach By developing an innovative conceptual framework predicated on a new theory of periodization it thus situates Chinese literature in the context of world literature and the forces of globalization Each section consists of a series of contributions examining the major literary genres including fiction poetry essay drama and film Offering an exciting account of the century long process of literary modernization in China the handbook s themes include Modernization of people and writing Realism romanticism and modernist aesthetics Chinese literature on the stage and screen Patriotism war and revolution Feminism liberalism and socialism Literature of reform reflection and experimentation Literature of Taiwan Hong Kong and new media This handbook provides an integration of biographical narrative with textual analysis maintaining a subtle balance between comprehensive overview and in depth examination As such it is an essential reference guide for all students and scholars of Chinese literature

Ecologies in Southeast Asian Literatures: Histories, Myths and Societies Chi P. Pham, Chitra Sankaran, Gurpreet Kaur, 2019-09-09 Ecocriticism in relation to the Southeast Asian region is relatively new So far John Charles Ryan's Ecocriticism in Southeast Asia is the first book of its kind to focus on the region and its literature to give an ecocritical analysis that volume compiles analyses of the eco literatures from most of the Southeast Asian region providing a broad insight into the ecological concerns of the region as depicted in its literatures and other cultural texts This edited volume furthers the study of Southeast Asian ecocriticism focusing specifically on prominent myths and histories and the myriad ways in which they connect to the social fabric of the region Our book is an original contribution to the expanding field of ecocriticism as it highlights the mytho historical basis of many of the region's literatures and their relationship to the environment The varied articles in this volume together explore the idea of nature and its relationship with humans The always problematic questions that surround such explorations such as why do we regard nature as external or how is humankind a continuum with nature emerge throughout the volume either overtly or implicitly As Pepper 1993 points out what Karl Marx referenced as first or external nature gave rise to humankind But humanity worked on this first nature to produce a second nature the material creations of society plus its institutions ideas and values Pepper 108 Thus our volume constantly negotiates this field of ideas and belief systems in diverse ways and in various cultures attempting to relate them to the current ecological predicaments of ASEAN It will likely prove an invaluable resource for scholars and students of ecocriticism and more broadly of Southeast Asian cultures and literatures

Ecocriticism and Chinese Literature Riccardo Moratto, Nicoletta Pesaro, Di-kai Chao, 2022-03-10 Focusing on ecocritical aspects throughout Chinese literature particularly modern and contemporary Chinese literature the contributors to this book examine the environmental and ecological dimensions of notions such as qing and jing Chinese modern and contemporary environmental writing offers a unique aesthetic perspective toward the natural world Such a perspective is mainly ecological and allows human subjects to take a benign and nonutilitarian attitude toward nature The contributors to this book demonstrate how Chinese literary ecology tends toward an ecological systemic holism from which all human behaviors should be closely examined They do so by examining a range of writers and genres including Liu Cixin's science fiction Wu Ming-yi's environmental fiction and Zhang Chengzhi's historical narratives This book provides valuable insights for scholars and students looking to understand how Chinese literature conceptualizes the relationship between humanity and nature as well as our role and position within the natural realm Embodied Memories,

Embedded Healing Peter I-min Huang, Xinmin Liu, 2021-10-28 Embodied Memories Embedded Healing critically engages with the major East Asian cultural knowledge beliefs and practices that influence environmental consciousness in the twenty first century This volume examines key thinkers and aspects of Daoist Confucianist Buddhist indigenous animistic and neo Confucianist thought With a particular focus on animistic perspectives on environmental healing and environmental consciousness the contributors also engage with media studies eco cinema food studies critical animal studies biotechnology and the material sciences Ecocriticism and Environment: Rethinking Literature and Culture Debashree Dattaray, Saritra Sharma, 2018-02-26 Ecocriticism and Environment Rethinking Literature and Culture focuses on the interface of sustainability ecology and the environment as reflected in literature and culture The eclectic collection of essays examined how writers have across the twentieth century and in the new millennium addressed ecological crisis and environmental challenges that cut across national cultural socio political and linguistic borders The book also singles out literary genres which are particularly sensitive to issues of sustainability The essays in this volume by scholars and activists across the globe address the diverse ways in which environments are imagined produced and articulated in diverse contexts and mediums and the consequent changes Embodied Memories, Embedded Healing Peter I-min Huang, Xinmin Liu, 2021-10-28
