Transforming Empire in Japan and East Asia Robert Eskildsen, 2019-01-02 This book examines the history of a military expedition the Japanese government sent to southern Taiwan in 1874 in the context of Japan s subordination to Western powers in the unequal treaty system in East Asia It argues that events on the ground in Taiwan show the Japanese government intended to establish colonies in southern and eastern Taiwan and justified its colonial intent based on the argument that a state must spread civilization and political authority to territories where it claimed sovereignty thereby challenging Chinese authority in East Asia and consolidating its power domestically The book considers the history of the Taiwan Expedition in the light of how Japanese imperialism began it emerged as part of the process of consolidating government power after the Meiji Restoration it derived from Western imperialism it developed in a dynamic relationship with Western imperialism and it increased Japan s leverage in its competition for influence in East Asia      The Athenaeum ,1876      The Geographical Magazine Sir Clements Robert Markham, 1876      Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan ,1886      A List of Works, Essays, Etc., Relating to Japan ,1886      Transactions of the Asiatic Society of Japan Asiatic Society of Japan, 1885      The Quarterly review ,1876      Supplementary Catalogue of the Books Added to the Parliamentary Library Parliamentary Library of South Australia, 1878      General Catalogue of ...
