Rethinking Disability Jan W. Valle, David J. Connor, 2019-02-05 Now in its second edition Rethinking Disability introduces new and experienced teachers to ethical framings of disability and strategies for effectively teaching and including students with disabilities in the general education classroom Grounded in a disability studies framework this text's unique narrative style encourages readers to examine their beliefs about disability and the influence of historical and cultural meanings of disability upon their work as teachers The second edition offers clear and applicable suggestions for creating dynamic and inclusive classroom cultures getting to know students selecting appropriate instructional and assessment strategies co-teaching and promoting an inclusive school culture This second edition is fully revised and updated to include a brief history of disability through the ages the relevance of current educational policies to inclusion technology in the inclusive classroom intersectionality and its influence upon inclusive practices working with families and issues of transition from school to the post school world Each chapter now also includes a featured voice from the field written by persons with disabilities parents and teachers

Rethinking Disability Jan W. Valle, 2011 Rethinking Disability Jan Valle, 2010 In response to concerns about teacher retention especially among teachers in their first to fourth year in the classroom we offer future teachers a series of brief guides full of practical advice that they can refer to in both their student teaching and in their first years on the job

Restrictive Practices in Health Care and Disability Settings Bernadette McSherry, Yvette Maker, 2020-12-13 This volume explores different models of regulating the use of restrictive practices in health care and disability settings The authors examine the legislation policies inspection enforcement and accreditation of the use of practices such as physical mechanical and chemical restraint They also explore the importance of factors such as organisational culture and staff training to the effective implementation of regulatory regimes In doing so the collection provides a solid evidence base for both the development and implementation of effective approaches to restrictive practices that focus on their reduction and ultimately their elimination across health care sectors Divided into five parts the volume covers new ground in multiple respects First it addresses the use of restrictive practices across mental health disability and aged care settings creating opportunities for new insights and interdisciplinary conversations across traditionally siloed sectors Second it includes contributions from research academics clinicians regulators and mental health consumers offering a rich and comprehensive picture of existing regulatory regimes and options for designing and implementing regulatory approaches that address the failings of current systems Finally it incorporates comparative perspectives from Australia New Zealand the Netherlands Germany and England The book is an invaluable resource for regulators policymakers lawyers clinicians consumer advocates and academics grappling with the use and regulation of restrictive practices in mental health disability and aged care contexts

Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2018 Alexander W. Wiseman, 2019-09-27 This year's edition brings together research and essays on comparative education trends and directions written by professional and scholarly leaders in the field Topics covered include theoretical and methodological developments reports on research to practice area studies and the diversification of comparative and international education Rethinking Disability Michael Schillmeier,2012-03-09 This text is a critical and empirically based introduction to disability studies It offers a comprehensive book length analysis of disability through the lens of Science and Technology Studies STS and presents a practice oriented discussion of how bodies senses and things are linked in everyday life and configure enabling and disabling scenarios Relevant to a broad spectrum of medical practitioners and practicing social service workers the book will also be essential reading in the fields of disability studies sociology of the body senses medical sociology and STS Rethinking Disability Theory and Practice K. Lesnik-Oberstein,2015-06-03 Drawing from work in a wide range of fields this book presents novel approaches to key debates in thinking about and defining disability Differing from other works in Critical Disability Studies it crucially demonstrates the consequences of radically rethinking the roles of language and perspective in constructing identities Rethinking Disability Patrick Devlieger,Beatriz Miranda-Galarza,Steven E. Brown,Megan Strickfaden,2016-06-15 The act of life is a lived experience common and unique that ties each of us to every other lived experience The fact of disability does not alter this fundamental truth In this edition of Rethinking Disability World Perspectives in Culture and Society we are presented with a system of thinking that considers the values of disability as a resource as a creative source of culture that moves disability out of the realm of victimized people and insurmountable barriers and provides opportunities to use the experience of disability to enter into networks that recognize strengths of differing abilities The authors within will intrigue you will move you will charm you but always will challenge your notion of sameness and difference as they confront the construct and de construct of disability and ableism They present compelling arguments for viewing disABILITY through the multiple lenses of disability culture They explore themes and issues that transcend past and origins time and place nuances of genetics to experiences of present and becoming and towards the future and beyond mere human yet always intrinsically connected to being human This book is intended for all audiences who dare to confront difference and sameness within themselves and in connection with others to inspire researchers who wish to explore and examine disability across social cultural and economic barriers It is an invitation to push away the barriers bring ableism inside to a place where the prosthesis is no longer the elephant in the room Building Community to Create Equitable, Inclusive and Compassionate Schools through Relational Approaches Joan G Mowat,2022-11-30 This book draws on an extensive international literature and policy context from a wide range of fields of enquiry to challenge the orthodoxies and systemic issues that serve to marginalise children and young people and lead the way for schools to become more equitable inclusive and compassionate in their practice With a particular focus on children with social emotional and behavioural mental health needs it critiques policy and practice as they pertain to behaviour management and school discipline in the UK and the USA and offers alternative perspectives based on collaborative and relational approaches to promoting positive behaviour and building community Each chapter features reflection points to provoke discussion as well as offering additional suggested reading culminating in a discussion of the role of school leaders in leading for social justice Ultimately this book will be of benefit to scholars researchers and students working in the fields of behaviour management inclusion and special needs education and education policy and politics more broadly It will also offer substantial appeal to education professionals school leaders and those with a locus on the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people

Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom Susan Baglieri, 2017-04-21 Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom is a core textbook that integrates knowledge and practice from the fields of disability studies and special education The second edition has been fully revised and updated throughout to include stronger connections between race class sexual orientation gender and disability to emphasize intersecting identities and experiences stronger emphasis on curriculum and teaching rather than on attitudes toward disability and updates to current events cultural references resources research literature laws and policies

Rethinking Disability Patrick Devlieger, 2003 This book provides an interdisciplinary approach to the challenges of the interface between disability culture Twelve papers discuss the following topics Towards a cultural model of disability Disability Values Representations Realities Labeling

Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom Susan Baglieri, 2012-05-04 This book's mission is to integrate knowledge and practice from the fields of disability studies and special education Parts I II focus on the broad foundational topics that comprise disability studies culture language and history and Parts III IV move into practical topics curriculum co teaching collaboration classroom organization disability specific teaching strategies etc associated with inclusive education This organization conforms to the belief that least restrictive environments the goal of inclusive education necessarily emerges from least restrictive attitudes the goal of disability studies Discussions throughout the book attempt to illustrate the intersection of theory and practice

Rethinking Normalcy Rod Michalko, Tanya Titchkosky, 2009 Rethinking Disability Theory and Practice K. Lesnik-Oberstein, 2014-01-14 Drawing from work in a wide range of fields this book presents novel approaches to key debates in thinking about and defining disability Differing from other works in Critical Disability Studies it crucially demonstrates the consequences of radically rethinking the roles of language and perspective in constructing identities

Physical and Medical Conditions Associated with Autism Martina Micai, Mila Vulchanova, Valentina Riva, David Saldaña, 2024-07-02 Some specific physical and medical conditions are well recognized to be more common in autistic individuals compared to the general population e.g. sleep wake disorders epilepsy sensory impairments However the prevalence and the impact on autistic individuals and their families of other physical and medical conditions such as cardiovascular conditions cancer musculoskeletal conditions food intolerance allergies autoimmune problems diabetes and neurocutaneous disorders have yet to be established The presence of such co-occurring conditions affects the success of treatment and worsens the quality of life of autistic individuals and their carers Importantly the awareness of the presence of specific physical and medical conditions associated with autism allows for targeted interventions and better outcomes

Rethinking Disability and Human Rights Inger Marie Lid, Edward Steinfeld, Michael Rembis, 2023-06-16 This book examines the role of disability in the right to political and social participation an act of citizenship that many disabled people do not enjoy The disability rights movement does not accept the use of disability to create limits on citizenship which poses challenges for contemporary societies that will become ever greater as the science and technology of enhancing human abilities evolves Comprised of eight chapters three interludes and a postscript written by leading scholars and disability rights activists the book explores citizenship for people with disabilities from an interdisciplinary perspective using the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD as a point of departure and the concept of universal design as a strategy for actualizing full citizenship for all Situating disability in its historical and cultural contexts the authors offer directions for rethinking citizenship including implications for access to the built environment information and communication systems education work community life and politics This book will be of interest to all scholars and students working in disability studies planning architecture public health rehabilitation social work and education

Disability Studies and the Inclusive Classroom Arthur Shapiro, Inaccessible Access Kelly Fagan Robinson, Mark T. Carew, Nora Ellen Groce, 2024-11-15 Inaccessible Access ethnographically addresses barriers to inclusion within knowledge making It focuses on the social environmental communicative and epistemological barriers that people with disabilities confront and embody throughout the course of their learning and living and in the specific context of their higher education institutions and in research It is presented by a neurodiverse disabled and non cis cohort of authors all of whom acknowledge a continuum of in access that is available to each contributor contingent on their inherent intersectionalities and alterities The authors and editors of this book foreground the work that has yet to be done on recognizing the value of nonnormative ways of approaching being in and knowing research and higher education particularly in cases where disability centered epistemologies are sidelined in confrontation with institutional norms even within existing discourses concerning equality and alterity Disability and Qualitative Inquiry Ronald J. Berger, Laura S. Lorenz, 2016-03-09 This groundbreaking text makes an intervention on behalf of disability studies into the broad field of qualitative inquiry Ronald Berger and Laura Lorenz introduce readers to a range of issues involved in doing qualitative research on disabilities by bringing together a collection of scholarly work that supplements their own contributions and covers a variety of qualitative methods participant observation interviewing and interview coding focus groups autoethnography life history narrative analysis content analysis and participatory visual methods The chapters are framed in terms of the relevant methodological issues involved in the research bringing in substantive findings to illustrate the fruits of the methods In doing so the book covers a range of physical sensory and cognitive impairments This work resonates with themes in disability studies such as emancipatory research which views research as a collaborative effort with research subjects whose lives are enhanced by the process and results of the work It is a methodological approach that requires researchers to be on guard against exploiting informants for the purpose of professional aggrandizement and to engage in a process of ongoing self reflection to clear themselves of personal and professional biases that may interfere with their ability to hear and empathize with others

Overrepresentation of Immigrants in Special Education / Die Überrepräsentation von MigrantInnen in der Sonderpädagogik Seyda Subasi Singh, 2020 Dieses Buch diskutiert die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund mit sonderpädagogischem Förderbedarf wobei in der Studie SchülerInnen mit türkischem Hintergrund in Österreich im Mittelpunkt stehen Es wird versucht Raum für die Zusammenführung von Erfahrungen aus erster Hand zu schaffen um die Komplexität des Überweisungsprozesses anzugehen und ein Verständnis zu entwickeln das über die Vereinfachung und lineare Erklärungen für die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund in nicht vielversprechenden Schulen hinausgeht This book discusses the overrepresented referral of students from a migrant background to special education by concentrating on the case of students from a Turkish background in Austria It attempts to open space for bringing first hand experiences together to address the complexity of the referral process and to develop an understanding that goes beyond oversimplification and linear explanations for the overrepresentation of students from a migrant background in lowpromising schools
