Understanding Research James H. McMillan, 2007-06-01 How to Write a Master's Thesis Yvonne N. Bui, 2014 How to Write a Masters Thesis is a comprehensive manual on how to conceptualize and write a five chapter masters thesis including the introduction literature review methodology results and discussion conclusion Very often a theory practice gap exists for students who have taken the prerequisite methods and statistics courses in their masters program but who have yet to understand how to apply and translate what they've learned about the research process with their first major project Yvonna Bui demystifies this process by integrating the language learned in these prerequisite courses into a step by step guide for developing one's own thesis project Applying Educational Research Joyce P. Gall, Meredith D. Gall, Walter R. Borg, 1999 This text brings research alive for educators by introducing readers to people who actually do research Designed for courses focused solely on consuming rather than conducting research this text includes 13 actual research articles reprinted in their entirety The primary author of each article then offers original commentary on his/her piece Through this format the text presents a comprehensive explanation of the methodologies used by present day researchers data collection challenges and the meaning of the results The book makes no assumptions about readers prior knowledge of research or statistics This text builds students confidence so that they are able to successfully read research reports and research synthesis
