

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Religion, Education and the State Mark Strasser, 2016-04-08 In the context of education Church and State issues are of growing importance and appear to be increasingly divisive This volume critically examines the developing jurisprudence relating to religion in the schools beginning with Everson v Board of Education where the US Supreme Court discussed the wall of separation between Church and State The study traces both how the Court's views have evolved during this period and how through recharacterizations of past opinions and the facts underlying them the Court has appeared to interpret Establishment Clause guarantees in light of the past jurisprudence when in reality that jurisprudence has been turned on its head The Court not only offers an unstable jurisprudence that is more likely to promote than avoid the problems that the Establishment Clause was designed to prevent but approaches Establishment Clause issues in a way that decreases the likelihood that an acceptable compromise on these important issues can be reached The study focuses on the situation in the US but the important issue of religion education and the state has great relevance in many jurisdictions
