Causality Jeaneane Fowler, 2020-02-21 This book examines the concepts of cause and effect from two dimensions. The first concerns the macrocosm of the Universe and how each belief system views creation. The second dimension explores the ways in which beliefs about creation influence the microcosmic world in terms of the nature of the self, the proximate goals within each system, the answers each belief system offers to the presence of evil and suffering in existence, and ideas about the ultimate goal of release from them. All these ideas inform and are fundamental to the understanding of the present-day practices of different faiths, presenting challenges for scriptural testimony balanced with existential living. The final two chapters explore current research in physics concerning the beginnings of the cosmos and what implications such research might have for existence within it, with the final chapter examining scientific views of the nature of the self.

Contents include: Judaic and Christian Traditions, Islam, Hinduism, Early Buddhism, Sikhism, Classical Taoism, Recycled Stardust, Ashes to Ashes and Dust to Atoms, The Life and Death of the Self.

The Resurgence of Traditional Poetic Form and the Current Status of Poetry's Place in American Culture Kevin Walzer, 2001 This study focuses on a movement called constructive postmodernism which in the work of such theorists as Frank Turner has helped to chart new directions for literary theory past the fragmentary impasses of deconstruction, identity politics, and cultural studies. It develops alternative readings of such poets as Wallace Stevens, Edna St. Vincent Millay, e. e. Cummings, James Wright, Hayden Carruth, Rita Dove, John Haines, Judson Jerome, and Sam Hamill. This book also raises questions about the status of poetry in contemporary American culture, particularly its relationship with the university.
