Expositions of Holy Scripture Alexander MacLaren,2014-01 Expositions of Holy Scripture St John Bible Study Essentials Alexander Maclaren Includes Vols I and II In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God 2 The same was in the beginning with God 3 All things were made by Him and without Him was not any thing made that was made 4 In Him was life and the life was the light of men 5 And the light shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehended it not 6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John 7 The same came for a witness to bear witness of the Light that all men through him might believe 8 He was not that Light but was sent to bear witness of that Light 9 That was the true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world 10 He was in the world and the world was made by Him and the world knew Him not 11 He came unto His own and His own received Him not 12 But as many as received Him to them gave

He power to become the sons of God even to them that believe on His name 13 Which were born not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man but of God 14 And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory the glory as of the only begotten of the Father full of grace and truth JOHN i 1 14 The other Gospels begin with Bethlehem John begins with the bosom of the Father Luke dates his narrative by Roman emperors and Jewish high priests John dates his in the beginning To attempt adequate exposition of these verses in our narrow limits is absurd we can only note the salient points of this the profoundest page in the New Testament The Expositions On The Psalms Volume 1 St. Augustine of Hippo, In any commentary on a portion of the Old Testament by a writer unacquainted with Hebrew exact criticism and freedom from mistake must not be expected But the Psalms have been so in the mouth and in the heart of God s people in all languages that it has been necessary often to find an explanation suitable to imperfect translations And no doubt it is intended that we should use such explanations for the purpose of edification when we are unable to be more accurate though in proving doctrine it is necessary always to remember and allow for any want of acquaintance with the original or uncertainty with respect to its actual meaning However the main scope and bearing of the text is rarely affected by such points as vary in different translations and the analogy of the faith is sufficient to prevent a Catholic mind from adopting any error in consequence of a text seeming to bear a heterodox meaning Perhaps the errors of translation in the existing versions may have led the Fathers to adopt rules of interpretation ranging too far from the simple and literal but having such translations they could hardly use them otherwise Meanwhile St Augustin will be found to excel in the intense apprehension of those great truths which pervade the whole of Sacred Writ and in the vivid and powerful exposition of what bears upon them It is hardly possible to read his practical and forcible applications of Holy Scripture without feeling those truths by the faith of which we ought to live brought home to the heart in a wonderful manner His was a mind that strove earnestly to solve the great problems of human life and after exhausting the resources and discovering the emptiness of erroneous systems found truth and rest at last in Catholic Christianity in the religion of the Bible as expounded by St Ambrose This is volume one out of two covering the Psalms I through LXXIII Expositions of Holy Scripture Alexander Maclaren, extra chairs often had to be placed on stage next to the pulpit What drew so many to travel to Manchester England to hear a preacher Maclaren knew how to apply the text to real life His dedication to expository preaching was unique in his day and even surpassed that of his friend Charles Haddon Spurgeon His ministry remains as a needed model for today because countless congregants still see the Bible as stories with little or no relevance to their daily duties Every Sunday people go to a Bible study listen to a sermon or read Scripture and they leave without transforming any part of their lives Despite consistently studying the Bible some people show little difference between the way they act now and the way they acted years ago This problem partially comes down to a lack of good biblical application coming from preachers and teachers of Scripture Maclaren s sermons as well as his essay An Old Preacher on Preaching teach expositors today how to make the Bible s truths come alive and be applicable
