Extinction Matthew Mather, 2015 Extinction E. Gordon Dickie, 2005-11-01 And Then There was One Margery Facklam, 1990 Examines the many reasons for the extinction and near extinction of animal species Discusses how some near extinctions have been reversed through special breeding programs and legislation to save endangered species Extinction Studies Deborah Bird Rose, Thom Van Dooren, Matthew Chrulew, 2017 Extinction Studies focuses on the entangled ecological and social dimensions of extinction exploring the ways in which extinction catastrophically interrupts life giving processes of time death and generations The volume opens up important philosophical questions about our place in and obligations to a more than human world Drawing on fieldwork philosophy literature history and a range of other perspectives each of the chapters in this book tells a unique extinction story that explores what extinction is what it means why it matters and to whom Extinction Douglas Preston, 2025-04-02 Nemesis Donald Goldsmith, 1986 Proposes a controversial new theory explaining the extinction of the dinosaurs that involves the possible existence of a death star that causes comet showers every twenty six million years The Sixth Extinction Instaread, 2015-09-15 PLEASE NOTE This is key takeaways and analysis of the book and NOT the original book The Sixth Extinction by Elizabeth Kolbert Key Takeaways Analysis Review Preview The Sixth Extinction is a book by award winning journalist Elizabeth Kolbert In this book the author demonstrates that species are dying out at a rate comparable to the previous mass extinctions and if the trend of global warming deforestation and pollution continues in its present course the numbers of extinct species will meet or exceed that rate of destruction This event will include the extinction of humanity What this means is that the current loss of life today will soon justify the term The Sixth Extinction a mass extinction like the one that destroyed the dinosaurs 65 million years ago When humans originated about 100 000 years ago they began to hunt some species into extinction Their ability to outcompete other early hominids for food led to the extinction of those species including Neanderthals The extinction of species picked up steam when humans began transforming great swaths of forest and plains into farmland about 10 000 years ago Inside this Instaread of The Sixth Extinction Overview of the book Important People Key Takeaways Analysis of Key Takeaways About the Author With Instaread you can get the key takeaways and analysis of a book in 15 minutes We read every chapter identify the key takeaways and analyze them for your convenience The Sixth Extinction Terry Glavin, 2007-04-03 A survey of the social extinctions taking place in the modern world draws on a variety of scientific disciplines to reveal how advances in globalization are contributing to the losses of languages as well as diverse cultural ways of living seeing and understanding The great extinction Michael Allaby, 1980 And Then There Was One Margery Facklam, 1990 Examines the many reasons for the extinction and near extinction of animal species Discusses how some near extinctions have been reversed through special breeding programs and legislation to save endangered species Extinction Paul R. Ehrlich, Anne H. Ehrlich, 1982 Extinction Or Evolution? Phillip Matthew Bender, Reed College (Portland, Or.).

Interdisciplinary Programs. American Studies,1991 Extinctions in Near Time Ross D.E. MacPhee,Hans-Dieter Sues,2013-11-09 Near time an interval that spans the last 100 000 years or so of earth history qualifies as a remarkable period for many reasons From an anthropocentric point of view the out standing feature of near time is the fact that the evolution cultural diversification and glob al spread of Homo sapiens have all occurred within it From a wider biological perspective however the hallmark of near time is better conceived of as being one of enduring repeat ed loss The point is important Despite the sense of uniqueness implicit in phrases like the biodiversity crisis meant to convey the notion that the present bout of extinctions is by far the worst endured in recent times substantial losses have occurred throughout near time In the majority of cases these losses occurred when and only when people began to ex pand across areas that had never before experienced their presence Although the explana tion for these correlations in time and space may seem obvious it is one thing to rhetori cally observe that there is a connection between humans and recent extinctions and quite another to demonstrate it scientifically How should this be done Traditionally the study of past extinctions has fallen largely to researchers steeped in such disciplines as paleontology systematics and paleoecology The evaluation of future losses by contrast has lain almost exclusively within the domain of conservation biolo gists Now more than ever there is opportunity for overlap and sharing of information Ecocide Franz J. Broszmitter,2002 We are wilfully destroying our world Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction Jonathan Elmore,2020 Fiction and the Sixth Mass Extinction is one of the first works to focus specifically on fiction s engagements with human driven extinction Drawing together a diverse group of scholars and approaches this volume pairs established voices in the field with emerging scholars and traditionally recognized climate fiction cli fi with texts and media typically not associated with Anthropocene fictions The result is a volume that both engages with and furthers existing work on Anthropocene fiction as well as laying groundwork for the budding subfield of extinction fiction This volume takes up the collective insistence on the centrality of story to extinction studies In various and disparate ways each chapter engages with the stories we tell about extinction about the extinction of animal and plant life and about the extinction of human life itself Answering the call to action of extinction studies these chapters explore what kinds of humanity caused this event and what kinds may live through it what cultural assumptions and values led to this event and which ones could lead out of it what relationships between human life and this planet allowed the sixth mass extinction and what alternative relationships could be possible Extinction(s) ,2018 Extinctions in Near Time Ross D. E. MacPhee,Hans-Dieter Sues,2014-09-01 Extinction Anne EHRLICH,1974 Extinction Steven M. Stanley,1987 The author introduces the basic concepts of geology and paleobiology that are necessary to understand mass extinction and addresses individual crises in chronological order describing them and showing how temporal geographic and biological patterns offer clues to help pinpoint the agents of extinction Ecocide Franz Broszmitter,2002-09-20 We live in an age of ecocide Changes of enormous ecological significance are occurring on our planet the ozone layer is beginning to disintegrate

Since 1970 the world's forests have almost halved. A quarter of the world's fish have been depleted. 70% of biologists believe the world is now in the midst of the fastest mass extinction of species in the planet's 4.5 billion year history. Biodiversity loss is rated as a more serious environmental problem than the depletion of the ozone layer, global warming, or pollution and contamination. How have we come to this and what can be done to conserve our environment for the future? Ecocide examines the facts behind the figures to offer a disturbing account of the ecological impact that the human species has on the planet. It shows how we are wilfully destroying our world. Highlighting important countermovements who are working for ecological democracy, this unique book is essential for anyone who cares about conserving our environment for the future.

Extinction Matthew Mather Ebook: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Extinction Matthew Mather Ebook : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
