Discovering the Bible in the Non-Biblical World Pui-Lan Kwok, 2003-09-16 As a Chinese woman a feminist theologian and a biblical scholar Pui lan Kwok brings a new perspective and voice to the task of hermeneutics Her multidimensional reading of the Bible draws on a tradition much older than that of the West while it simultaneously incorporates the insights of contemporary feminist and Third World theologies Seeing herself as wanderer between the worlds of East and West Pui lan Kwok draws on the work of contemporary biblical scholars as well as the millennia old commentaries on the Book of Change the Dao de Jing and the Bhagavad Gita Her creativity and imagination come into play as she gradually inseparably links reader text and context The first three chapters locate the context from which she approaches the Bible as an Asian woman Pui lan considers Asian traditions as well as the social biography of Asian peoples and discusses the complex issues of using the Bible in feminist theology Chapters Four and Five approach the unique Asian context with its long traditions of orality and exegesis of ancient scriptures Chapter Six analyzes the challenges of Asian critics to western interpretations of scripture and raises sharp issues of colonial oppression Finally Discovering the Bible in the Non Biblical World shows how the multiple oppressions of women provide a context for rediscovering the Bible's liberating message Must reading for anyone engaged in biblical studies cross cultural education and feminist theology I highly recommend this richly instructive and powerful book Elisabeth Schassler Fiorenza Harvard Divinity School An important addition to the fast growing literature on Asian biblical
