Against Purity Irene Gedalof, 2005-08-02 Against Purity confronts the difficulties that white Western feminism has in balancing issues of gender with other forms of difference such as race ethnicity and nation This pioneering study places recent feminist theory from India in critical conversation with the work of key Western thinkers such as Butler haraway and Irigaray and argues that through such postcolonial encounters contemporary feminist thought can begin to work against purity in order to develop more complex models of power identity and the self ultimately to redefine women as the subject of feminism Theoretically grounded yet written in an accessible style this is a unique contribution to ongoing feminist debates about identity power and difference

The Future of Difference Hester Eisenstein, Alice Jardine, 1985 Same Difference Carol Lee Bacchi, 2024-09-30 Are women the same as or different from men Should women seek equality with men or admit their difference First published in 1990 Same Difference explores these highly charged political questions by examining how the women s movement has engaged with them over time and in three countries Australia Britain and America Case studies include disputes about maternity leave protective legislation affirmative action custody pornography rape and women s supposed metaphysical differences from men their greater nurturing and caring capacity Challenging a common view of the women s movement as perpetually riven into sameness and difference camps Same Difference highlights the political conditions which impel some feminists to argue in these terms The implication of the analysis is that debates about sexual difference divert attention from important social issues such as how society is to reproduce itself and what kind of society we wish to create This book will be a beneficial read for students and researchers of feminist theory women s studies and sociology

Dialogue and Difference M. Waller, S. Marcos, 2016-09-27 Calling for inclusion and dialogue these essays by an international group of feminist scholars and activists stress the need to put into relation seemingly discrepant approaches to reality and to scholarship in order to build coalitions across the usual North South and East West divides This diverse group of authors who spent fourteen weeks working collaboratively dispense with unity and seek instead to use dialogue and difference in their production of knowledge about effective political action The dialogues materialized here among women s movements that have emerged within different contexts and cosmologies take feminisms challenges to contemporary corporate globalization in new empirical and theoretical directions
